PREPARING YOUR HOME TO SELL

A home in pristine condition will attract more buyers, sell in the shortest period of time and better position your home for its highest value.

In addition to a clean and inviting appearance, invest the money up front to cover all repairs. Whatever you don't repair will be noted on the home inspection report. If the repair list is lengthy, some buyers may decide to back out of the agreement, or incorporate the cost of repairs into their negotiations.

To ensure your home shows at its best, here are a few suggestions:

- Take an objective account of condition inside and out
- Repair any damage throughout
- Deep clean – top to bottom
- Professionally clean flooring
- Clean all windows, repair screens and ensure windows open properly
- Repair ceiling leaks and stains

- Replace air filters
- Paint interior and exterior where necessary selecting neutral colors
- Ensure all plumbing and electrical elements are in excellent condition
- Clean and ensure proper condition of all kitchen appliances
- Remove clutter inside and outside

- Store worn furniture out of sight
- Remove personal items such as photos and knick-knacks
- Groom landscaping – trim and replant where necessary
- Enhance the entry way with potted plants and a new welcome mat

PREPARING YOUR HOME TO SHOW

When showing your home to prospective buyers a positive first impression is crucial. Take these steps to ensure your home shows at its best:

- Open up all drapes and blinds to let in as much light as possible and make rooms look larger
- Turn on the lights in all rooms, light candles for a fresh and fragrant ambiance
- At night, turn on all porch and outside lights
- Leave the house in perfect order, make beds, put away dishes and hang fresh bathroom towels
- Vacuum your home as much as possible to keep in showing condition
- Put away all children's toys and clutter
- Play soothing music, do not have the TV on
- Arrange fresh flowers around the house tastefully
- Leave your home when it is being shown. However, make sure your agent can reach you to answer questions, etc.

RETURN ON YOUR HOME IMPROVEMENTS

When you're ready to sell your home, rely on the objective opinion of your REALTOR® to offer suggestions on home improvements that will likely offer the highest return on your investment.

Below is a brief summary of upgrades that typically reap the highest return according to Realtor.com.

HOME IMPROVEMENT	RETURN %
Upgrade the front door – replace, repaint, replace hardware	60%
Add more outdoor living space or enhance existing space by adding water features, outdoor fireplace or kitchen area, or new landscaping	73%

Another great resource for your research is the “2021 Cost vs. Value Report,” an annual collaboration between Remodeling Magazine and Realtor Magazine that breaks down the estimated cost of various remodeling projects and the estimated return on investment for those projects by region and by city, as well as by midrange and upscale projects. THE IMPORTANCE OF PRICING

Without a doubt, of all of the mistakes that a Seller can make, mispricing the home either too high or too low is the most harmful and costly. Price your home too low, the home will sell, and probably sell quickly, but you will lose money that is rightfully yours. Price the property too high and it will linger on the market and likely not sell, costing money in the form of interest, repairs, upkeep and added stress.

Your REALTOR® will work with you to select the list price that puts your home in the best competitive position to sell for the highest price in the least amount of time. Together, you will review homes like yours that have recently sold, are currently for sale, or have expired or been taken off the market.

The Buyer activity will likely occur within the first couple weeks of your home being on the market. Therefore, pricing it correctly at the onset increases a timely sale with less inconvenience and greater monetary return.

KEY REASONS TO PRICE PROPERLY:

A TIMELY SALE

Chances are that your home will ultimately sell at its fair market value. Pricing it properly at the onset simply increases the likelihood of a timely sale with less inconvenience and greater monetary return.

COMPETITION

Buyers educate themselves by viewing many properties and they will always look at a range of homes priced competitively. They know, or learn very quickly, what is a fair price. If your home is not competitive in value with those they have seen in the same price range, it simply will not sell.

REPUTATION

Overpricing causes most homes to remain on the market too long. Buyers and Agents become aware of the long exposure period and often are hesitant to make an offer because they fear something is wrong with the property. Homes on the market for a long period of time, historically sell for less than their fair market value.

INCONVENIENCE

If overpricing keeps your home from selling promptly, you may end up owning two homes, the one you are trying to sell and the new home you have already purchased. This can prove to be costly, worrisome and very inconvenient.

FOR AN ESTIMATE OF NET PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF YOUR HOME, CHECK WITH YOUR REALTOR®.

APPRAISALS & THEIR INFLUENCE

When you sell your house, and the Buyer is applying for a new loan in order to purchase the property. This shows the Buyer's Lender requires a licensed Appraiser to estimate the market value of the property to show the Lender that they are making a prudent decision lending the Buyer the money to buy your house.

Once the Buyer begins the new loan application process, the Lender will order the appraisal. In order to estimate the market value of your house, the Appraiser will research the sales comparables in your subdivision and/or your immediate area. Appraisers prefer to use sales which have sold within the past 6 months and are similar to yours in regard to square footage, year built and amenities (i.e. swimming pool, garage, single story).

The Appraiser will measure your home, take photographs, and examine your house for its condition, specific improvements and amenities. You can help the Appraiser by preparing a list of recent improvements and remodeling projects, and include their approximate costs. Some Appraisers will appreciate this information while others may not. However, if you prepare the information for buyers looking at your home, then providing it for the Appraiser will be a snap.

The Lender will receive a copy of the appraisal a few days after the appraiser has been to your home. You may be told that the Appraiser has some repair requirements before the lender can loan the Buyer any money on your house. In that case, you must repair these problems and the Appraiser will return for a reinspection at an additional cost.

If your home does not appraise for the asking price, your Buyer could renegotiate or walk away from the deal. This is why your original asking price should be accurate to the appraised value.

THE HOME INSPECTION PROCESS

HOME INSPECTION

A standard home inspection is typically ordered by the Buyer after an offer is accepted and is a visual examination of the physical structure and major interior systems. It is not to be interpreted as a guarantee of any kind or an insurance policy on the condition of the property. A home inspection is not to be confused with an appraisal, a building code inspection, or a guarantee of any kind and/or an insurance policy on the property.

The Inspector will review the easily-accessible exposed portions of the structure of the home including the roof, attic, walls, ceilings, floors, windows, doors, and foundation, as well as the heating/air conditioning systems, interior plumbing and electrical systems. Potential problems will be noted.

- Termite

13 SELLING MISTAKES TO AVOID

1. PRICING YOUR HOME TOO HIGH

A Real Estate Agent can research comparable sales in your area and advise you for the appropriate price range of your property.

2. TAKING AN INFLEXIBLE POSITION ON FINANCING

Have your Agent explain what financing options are available. Being flexible on financing terms may secure a better selling price, with other advantages as well.

3. ERRORS IN MARKET TIMING

Ask your Agent to determine whether the market cycle is poised to net you the most money.

4. NOT PROVIDING EASY ACCESS FOR SHOWINGS

There are many ways to show a home. "Appointment Only" is the most restrictive. Lock boxes (key safes) are the most accessible. If your home is easy for Agents to show, more prospective Buyers will see it, improving your odds of getting the deal you want. However, your specific lifestyle may not be compatible with frequent showings. Your Agent will help you determine a solution that will best fit your situation.

5. NOT UTILIZING CURRENT MARKET TECHNOLOGY

Make sure your Agent is up with the latest technology and resources available. Check around to see what technology is being utilized in your specific area. A good Agent will know where you can get the best exposure.

6. NOT "STAGING" YOUR PROPERTY CORRECTLY

Reference the sections on "Preparing Your Home To Sell" and "Preparing Your Home To Show" for tips on setting the stage for your home showings.

7. BELIEVING SELLING PROPERTY IS SEASONAL

Don't base your selling decision on a season. Properties sell all year long.

8. PRICING YOUR PROPERTY TOO LOW

Hiring an Agent ensures no money is left on the table.

9. BELIEVING YOUR AGENT IS NOT DOING THEIR JOB WHEN THERE AREN'T ANY OFFERS

If your home shows well, but hasn't generated any interested Buyers, it may be time to re-evaluate the price.

10. IGNORING THE IMPORTANCE OF FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Sales have been blown by unkempt lawns, cluttered closets, unpainted front doors, hard-to-work locks, blown light bulbs, bad colors, stains, unlit areas and bad smells. Spend time on the little things. Double up on your gardening, keep things cleaner than usual. Take serious control of your pets during this period.

11. NOT MAKING THE RIGHT KIND OF REPAIRS

Don't be tempted to make improvements prior to listing without consulting your Agent. Some upgrades will not yield any real increase in value, while others may increase property value substantially.

12. NOT GIVING THE SALES EFFORT ENOUGH TIME

You should never give too little time to what is inherently a long process. Homes may take 3-6 months to sell, in any market. Estimate how much time you have before you need to sell and then plan ahead to allow extra time. You don't want to be forced to accept a disappointing offer.

13. NOT SCREENING PROSPECTS ADEQUATELY

One of the best reasons for hiring an Agent is their ability to prequalify a prospect financially before valuable negotiation time is lost. More importantly, your Agent may discover when a prospect has an ulterior motive for shopping homes, other than purchasing.

WHEN AN OFFER IS RECEIVED

When a buyer makes an offer on your home, the sales process begins. It will likely include the following:

PURCHASE CONTRACT PREPARED WITH OFFER

The Buyer's Agent will prepare the Purchase Contract on behalf of the buyer. This agreement will include the buyer's terms of the purchase including how much they are offering for the home and any contingencies, such as home inspections or lender appraisal. Earnest money may also be included. Upon completion of the Purchase Contract, the Buyer's Agent will contact the Seller's Agent to present the offer.

OFFER IS ACCEPTED OR COUNTERED

The Seller will evaluate the offer then accept the terms or prepare a counter offer.

NET PROCEEDS

The Seller's Agent may prepare a Net Proceeds Statement for the Seller. This will detail the estimated costs to sell the home and how much the Seller will actually receive under the terms of the offer.

CLOSING PROCESS BEGINS

If the Seller accepts, the closing process will begin. If you counter, the ball is back in the Buyer's court and the Buyer must decide if they will accept, reject, or counter the counter offer.

BE READILY AVAILABLE

The offer process moves quickly.

WHEN IN DOUBT, DISCLOSE

Sellers are obligated by law to disclose all known material facts about the property to the Buyer. The Arizona Association of REALTORS® Seller's Property Disclosure Statement ("SPDS") is designed to assist you in making these legally required disclosures and to avoid inadvertent nondisclosures of material facts.

WHAT MUST BE DISCLOSED?

Since the mid 1980s, many states have made it mandatory that a Seller disclose, to every potential Buyer, any existing problems or defects of which the Seller is aware. It is critical that all of the disclosures are in writing.

MAINTENANCE AND HOME IMPROVEMENT RECORDS

Have available all of the records with regard to maintenance service work, warranty work or improvements that you have made throughout the ownership of the home. Of particular interest will be roof replacement or repair, appliance repair, plumbing service and electrical work. If you have kept up with the proper service and maintained good records, most Buyers will see that as pride of ownership.

UTILITY BILLS

Most potential Buyers will want to know the approximate monthly utility bills. If you have all of the bills for gas, electricity, propane, sewage, garbage and water for the previous year, have them available. If you have not saved your bills, call each of the utility companies and ask for a printout of your bills for the previous 12 months.

WARRANTIES

Have all warranties available that are still in effect for appliances or other items for the home. This is especially important for roofs, pools, spas, electrical and major appliances.

LEGALITIES OF HOME PREPARATION

Some sellers try to cover up problems that exist within a home. Making a severe mistake of withholding pertinent information falls under the laws of Seller Disclosure.

UNDERSTANDING THE ESCROW PROCESS

The following explains the sequence of events involved in an escrow/closing process and what party involved is responsible. Your Escrow Officer is the “neutral third party.” Their job in the closing process is to gather all the documents and information from all involved parties to prepare for the transfer of the property.

STEP 1	Escrow Officer	Receives Purchase Contract with earnest money check, opens escrow and orders Title Commitment
STEP 2	Buyer	Has all inspections completed
STEP 3	Lender	Begins processing: Orders credit report, appraisal, deposits and verification of employment
STEP 4	Escrow Officer	Receives Title Commitment for review and distributes to all parties
STEP 5	Escrow Officer	Orders any statements for items requiring payoff per Title Commitment
STEP 6	Lender	Receives loan approval and orders loan documents to be sent to Escrow
STEP 7	Escrow Officer	Prepares a Preliminary Settlement Statement for review by parties
STEP 8	Seller	Signs Deed and other related sale documents
STEP 9	Buyer	Signs loan documents and deposits funds required
STEP 10	Escrow Officer	Returns signed loan documents to Lender
STEP 11	Escrow Officer	Receives loan funds from Lender
STEP 12	Escrow Officer	Orders recording of Deed and Deed of Trust
STEP 13	Escrow Officer	Completes the file by paying the Seller, agents, and all bills in escrow, and sends the final documents to all
STEP 14	Title Company	Issues title policies to Owner and Lender

TITLE INSURANCE EXPLAINED

WHAT IS TITLE INSURANCE?

Your lender must insure that the quality of the title to the property you are about to buy, and which you will pledge as security for the loan, is satisfactory. The Lender does this by obtaining a Lender's Policy of title insurance, often referred to as the ALTA Policy.

The Lender's policy protects the Lender against loss due to unknown Title defects at the time of the sale and in the future. This policy only protects the Lender's interest. It does not protect you. That's why you need an Owner's Policy, which will be issued at the same time as the Lender's policy for a one-time fee.

HOW CAN THERE BE A TITLE DEFECT?

Title insurance is issued after a careful examination of copies of the public records. Even the most thorough search cannot absolutely assure that no Title hazards are present, despite the knowledge and experience of professional Title examiners. In addition to matters shown by public records, other Title problems may exist that cannot be disclosed in a search.

WHAT TITLE INSURANCE PROTECTS AGAINST

Here are just a few of the most common hidden risks that can cause a Title issue:

- False impersonation of the true owner of the property
 - Forged deeds, releases of wills
 - Undisclosed or missing heirs
 - Mistakes in recording legal documents
 - Deeds by persons of unsound mind
 - Deeds by minors
 - Deeds by persons supposedly single, but in fact married
 - Liens for unpaid inheritance, income or gift taxes
 - Fraud

WHAT PROTECTION DOES TITLE INSURANCE PROVIDE AGAINST DEFECTS AND HIDDEN RISKS?

Title Insurance will pay for defending against lawsuits attacking your Title as insured, and will clear up Title problems or pay the losses. Your Title Insurance protects against title loss and hidden risks as long as the Policy remains in effect.

ESTIMATED NET SHEET

A very rough estimate of the Seller's Closing Cost is 7% of the sales price including the agent's commission. Your agent can help you accurately calculate these fees.

 299. the purpose of satisfying Buyer that any corrections or repairs agreed to by Seller have been completed, and the Premises are
 300. in substantially the same condition as of the date of Contract acceptance. If Buyer does not conduct such walkthrough(s), Buyer
 301. releases Seller and Broker(s) from liability for any defects that could have been discovered.
- 6m. 302. Seller's Responsibility Regarding Inspections and Walkthrough(s): Seller shall make the Premises available for all inspections
 303. and walkthrough(s) upon reasonable notice by Buyer. Seller shall, at Seller's expense, have all utilities on, including any propane,

- 7a. 310. Cure Period: A party shall have an opportunity to cure a potential breach of this Contract. If a party fails to comply with any
 311. provision of this Contract, the other party shall deliver a notice to the non-complying party specifying the non-compliance. If the
 312. non-compliance is not cured within three (3) days after delivery of such notice ("Cure Period"), the failure to comply shall become a

- 7b. 315. Breach: In the event of a breach of Contract, the non-breaching party may cancel this Contract and/or proceed against the
 316. breaching party in any claim or remedy that the non-breaching party may have in law or equity, subject to the Alternative Dispute
 317. Resolution obligations set forth herein. In the case of Seller, because it would be difficult to fix actual damages in the event of
 318. Buyer's breach, the Earnest Money may be deemed a reasonable estimate of damages and Seller may, at Seller's option, accept
 319. the Earnest Money as Seller's sole right to damages; and in the event of Buyer's breach arising from Buyer's failure to deliver the
 320. notice required by Section 2b, or Buyer's inability to obtain loan approval due to the waiver of the appraisal contingency pursuant
 321. to Section 2l, Seller shall exercise this option and accept the Earnest Money as Seller's sole right to damages. An unfulfilled

 323. conditions of Section 1d to allow COE to occur on the COE Date, if not cured after a cure notice is delivered pursuant to Section 7a,
 324. will constitute a material breach of this Contract, rendering the Contract subject to cancellation.

 326. Contract in accordance with the REALTORS® Dispute Resolution System, or as otherwise agreed. All mediation costs shall be paid
 327. equally by the parties. In the event that mediation does not resolve all disputes or claims, the unresolved disputes or claims shall
 328. be submitted for binding arbitration. In such event, the parties shall agree upon an arbitrator and cooperate in the scheduling of
 329. an arbitration hearing. If the parties are unable to agree on an arbitrator, the dispute shall be submitted to the American Arbitration
 330. Association ("AAA") in accordance with the AAA Arbitration Rules for the Real Estate Industry. The decision of the arbitrator shall be
 331. final and nonappealable. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.
 332. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may opt out of binding arbitration within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the
 333. mediation conference by notice to the other and, in such event, either party shall have the right to resort to court action.
- 7d. 334. Exclusions from ADR: The following matters are excluded from the requirement for ADR hereunder: (i) any action brought in the
 335. Small Claims Division of an Arizona Justice Court (up to $3,500) so long as the matter is not thereafter transferred or removed from
 336. the small claims division; (ii) judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure or other action or proceeding to enforce a deed of trust, mortgage, or
 337. agreement for sale; (iii) an unlawful entry or detainer action; (iv) the filing or enforcement of a mechanic's lien; or (v) any matter that
 338. is within the jurisdiction of a probate court. Further, the filing of a judicial action to enable the recording of a notice of pending action
 339. ("lis pendens"), or order of attachment, receivership, injunction, or other provisional remedies shall not constitute a waiver of the
 340. obligation to submit the claim to ADR, nor shall such action constitute a breach of the duty to mediate or arbitrate.
- 7e. 341. Attorney Fees and Costs: The prevailing party in any dispute or claim between Buyer and Seller arising out of or relating to this
 342. Contract shall be awarded their reasonable attorney fees and costs. Costs shall include, without limitation, attorney fees, expert

RESIDENTIAL SELLER DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

Document updated:
October 2017

WHEN IN DOUBT - DISCLOSE!

Arizona law requires the seller to disclose material (important) facts about the property, even if you are not asked by the buyer or a real estate agent. These disclosure obligations remain even if you and the buyer agree that no Seller's Property Disclosure Statement ("SPDS") will be provided.

The SPDS is designed to assist you, the seller, in making these legally required disclosures and to avoid inadvertent nondisclosures of material facts. To satisfy your disclosure obligations and protect yourself against alleged nondisclosure, you should complete the SPDS by answering all questions as truthfully and as thoroughly as possible. Attach copies of any available invoices, warranties, inspection reports, and leases, to insure that you are disclosing accurate information. Use the blank lines to explain your answers. If you do not have the personal knowledge to answer a question, it is important not to guess - use the blank lines to explain the situation.

If the buyer asks you about an aspect of the property, you have a duty to disclose the information, even if you do not consider the information material.* You also have a legal duty to disclose facts when disclosure is necessary to prevent a previous statement from being misleading or misrepresented: for example, if something changes.

If you do not make the legally required disclosures, you may be subject to civil liability. Under certain circumstances, nondisclosure of a fact is the same as saying that the fact does not exist. Therefore, nondisclosure may be given the same legal effect as fraud.

If you are using the Arizona Association of REALTORS® ("AAR") Residential Resale Real Estate Purchase Contract, the seller is required to deliver "a completed AAR Residential SPDS form to the Buyer within three (3) days after Contract acceptance." If the Seller does not provide the SPDS as the Contract requires, the Seller is potentially in breach of the Contract, thereby enabling the Buyer to cancel the transaction and receive the earnest money deposit.

*By law, sellers are not obligated to disclose that the property is or has been: (1) a site of a natural death, suicide, homicide, or any other crime classified as a felony; (2) owned or occupied by a person exposed to HIV, or diagnosed as having AIDS or any other disease not known to be transmitted through common occupancy of real estate; or (3) located in the vicinity of a sex offender. However, the law does not protect a seller who makes an intentional misrepresentation. For example, if you are asked whether there has been a death on the property and you know that there was such a death, you should not answer "no" or "I don't know." Instead you should either answer truthfully or respond that you are not legally required to answer the question.

RESIDENTIAL SELLER'S PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT (SPDS) (To be completed by Seller)

Document updated:
October 2017

The pre-printed portion of this form has been drafted by the Arizona Association of REALTORS®. Any change in the pre-printed language of this form must be made in a prominent manner. No representations are made as to the legal validity, adequacy and/or effects of any provision, including tax consequences thereof. If you desire legal, tax or other professional advice, please consult your attorney, tax advisor or professional consultant.

MESSAGE TO THE SELLER:

Sellers are obligated by law to disclose all known material (important) facts about the Property to the Buyer. The SPDS is designed to assist you in making these disclosures. If you know something important about the Property that is not addressed on the SPDS, add that information to the form. Prospective Buyers may rely on the information you provide.

INSTRUCTIONS: (1) Complete this form yourself. (2) Answer all questions truthfully and as fully as possible. (3) Attach all available supporting documentation. (4) Use explanation lines as necessary. (5) If you do not have the personal knowledge to answer a question, use the explanation lines to explain. By signing on page 7, you acknowledge that the failure to disclose known material information about the Property may result in liability.

MESSAGE TO THE BUYER:

Although Sellers are obligated to disclose all known material (important) facts about the Property, there are likely facts about the Property that the Sellers do not know. Therefore, it is important that you take an active role in obtaining information about the Property.

INSTRUCTIONS: (1) Review this form and any attachments carefully. (2) Verify all important information. (3) Ask about any incomplete or inadequate responses. (4) Inquire about any concerns not addressed on the SPDS. (5) Review all other applicable documents, such as CC&R's, association bylaws, surveys, rules, and the title report or commitment. (6) Obtain professional inspections of the Property. (7) Investigate the surrounding area.

NOTICE TO BUYER: Your mortgage lender [may] [will] require you to purchase flood insurance in connection with your purchase of this property. The National Flood Insurance Program provides for the availability of flood insurance and establishes flood insurance policy premiums based on the risk of flooding in the area where properties are located. Recent changes to federal law (The Biggert-Waters Flood Insurance Reform Act of 2012 and the Homeowner Flood Insurance Affordability Act of 2014, in particular) will result in changes to flood insurance premiums that are likely to be higher, and in the future may be substantially higher, than premiums paid for flood insurance prior to or at the time of sale of the property. As a result, purchasers of property should not rely on the premiums paid for flood insurance on this property previously as an indication of the premiums that will apply after completion of the purchase. In considering purchase of this property you should consult with one or more carriers of flood insurance for a better understanding of flood insurance coverage, current and anticipated future flood insurance premiums, whether the prior owner's policy may be assumed by a subsequent purchaser of the property, and other matters related to the purchase of flood insurance for the property. You may also wish to contact the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) for more information about flood insurance as it relates to this property.
